last evening Mrs. John Henry Ham-mond, president, said.

"The Memorial Association was formed two weeks after the late Col. Roosevelt's death. We decided to restore his birthplace and bought the building at 28 East Twentieth street and building at 28 East Twentieth streeth building at 28 East Twentieth street and also the building at 28 East Twentieth street and museum. Through our committees we might convert that into a library and museum. Through our committees we fope to establish Rooseveit clubs in every school throughout the country, so as to instruct the children in the principles of Rooseveit's clizenship. In Wadleigh High School alone we now have 2,600 puphs. We intend to organize committees in thirty-one Stafes and ten foreign countries. Up to date we have collected $90,000 toward the restoration fund.
